72 - Hour Emergency Preparedness Kit

Below is a sample list of items that should be in your 72 - Hour Emergency Kit. This and any special needs that someone in your family might have, also include any additional items that your family would need.

Emergency Survival Kit

- » Food (see "Food Kit")
- » Bottled Water (see "Water Kit")
- » Flashlight and spare batteries or crank flashlight
- » Radio or crank radio (so you can listen to news bulletins)
- » First-aid kit
- » Candles, matches / lighter
- » Extra car keys and cash (including coins / cards for telephone)
- » Gas for generators
- » Important papers (identification for everyone, personal documents such as insurance papers)
- » Clothing and footwear (one change of clothes per person)
- » Blankets or sleeping bags (one blanket or sleeping bag per person)
- » Toilet paper / paper towel
- » Personal supplies such as: shampoo, hairbrush, tooth brush and toothpaste, soap and a towel for each person
- » Medication and copies of prescriptions
- » Backpack / duffel bag (or something else to carry the emergency survival kit in)
- » Whistle (in case you need to attract someones attention)
- » Playing cards

Additional Equipment

- » Knives, forks, spoons, disposable cups and plates
- » Manual can opener / bottle opener
- » Fuel stove and fuel (follow manufacturers instructions; never use a barbecue indoors)
- » Waterproof matches and plastic garbage bags
- » Pocket knife or multi-tool
- » Duct tape

Car Kit

- » Food (see "food kit")
- » Bottled water (see "water kit")
- » Shovel
- » Sand, salt or kitty litter
- » Traction mats
- » Tow chain
- » Booster cables
- » Tire patch kit
- » Plug-in air pump

Car Kit Continued...

- » Flash light and spare batteries or crank flashlight
- » Compass
- » Toilet paper
- » Paper towel
- » Warning light or road flares
- » Extra clothing and footwear
- » Axe or hatchet
- » Ice scraper and brush
- » Road maps
- » Matches and a "survival" candle in a deep can (to warm hands, heat a drink or use as emergency light)
- » Fire extinguisher
- » Methyl hydrate (for fuel line and windshield de-icing)
- » First-aid kit with seatbelt cutter
- » Blanket or special "survival" blankets

Additional Considerations:

Babies / Toddlers:

Diapers, bottled milk, formula and food, small toys, crayons / paper.

Other Family Members:

Keep at least one weeks supply of medication in your emergency kit and include extra eyeglasses, spare batteries for medical appliances and an extra oxygen cylinder if needed. Include copies of prescriptions for your medicine and glasses.

Pets:

Include a three-day supply of pet food and water.

Food Kit:

Have at least a three-day supply of food on hand. Choose ready-to-eat foods that your family likes and that don't need refrigeration. Canned food, such as: soups, stews, baked beans, pasta, meat, poultry, fish, vegetables and fruits work well. Additionally, crackers and biscuits, honey, peanut butter, syrup, jam, salt and pepper, sugar, instant coffee and tea. If the food kit is being used as part of a car kit, consider the impact that outdoor temperature will have on it if it is being permanently left in your car.

Water Kit:

At least four liters per person per day should be allocated - two for drinking and two for food preparation, hygiene and dish-washing. Keep a supply of water purification tablets on hand as well. If the water kit is being used as part of a car kit, consider the impact that the temperature outdoors would have on it if it is being left permanently in you car.

Note: Review and replace food and dry goods once a year

In Case of an Evacuation Due to Forest Fire

What to have in your emergency bag:

- » Identification (passport, birth certificate, health card, status card, SIN card)
- » Important documents (insurance policies, marriage certificates, house deed, banking information)
- » Cash ($200)
- » Gas (keep your fuel topped up throughout fire season)
- » Water kit
- » Car food kit (non-perishables)
- » Clothing for at least 2 days
- » Pet kit (food, water, leash, toy, vaccination record)
- » Medications
- » Assistive devices (hearing aids, glasses, canes, crutches)
- » Phones / chargers
- » Children's formula / medications

* In the Event of an Evacuation ****

1. DO NOT PANIC
2. Stay at your home until you are told by an official to leave your home - if you are not home when an evacuation officer (EO) arrives, a notice will be left on your door.
3. You will be given direction by your evacuation officer on how the evacuation is being staged whether that be via road or air and what direction you are to move in.
4. Arrangements for pets will be made by officials if air evacuation is required.
5. Leave behind all unnecessary personal items.
6. When you arrive to your muster station, have your EO document ready for registration officials.
7. Keep roadways clear for emergency vehicles / do not enter barricaded roads

June 6th: Forest Fire

The Township of Pickle Lake would like to thank all members of the community for their cooperation during the forest fire that occurred on June 6th through to June 12th 2019. We particularly wish to extend a special thanks to our Provincial, and Federal partners, who assisted us through the Provincial Emergency Operations Centre. Simone Stawicki from OFMEM, the MNRF, Pickle Lake Fire Rescue, OPP, Municipal Staff, Northwest EMS, Wasaya Airways, Northstar Air, Winston Hotel, The Northern Store, Morgan Fuels, Mike's Tackle and Tire, North Pop LTD., Doug and Winston Koval, Lianna Millar, Sharon Bak OFMEM, Sioux Lookout Fire Department, The Municipality of Sioux Lookout, Greenstone, Dryden, Kenora, Machin, Ignace, Ear Falls, Red Lake and all other volunteers behind the scenes - thank you so much for your generosity and support during that time.
